NEWSCASTER: It's a walk down memory lane as Olympic gold medalist Mariel Zagunis shares her accomplishment with kids at her old school. KXL's Doug Carter reports.

REPORTER: Mariel Zagunis shared the medals she won in fencing with the kids at Valley Catholic's Early Learning Center.

MARIEL ZAGUNIS: I feel like a giant in what used to be like someplace where I, you know, go there after school.

REPORTER: She shared this message with the older kids on campus.

ZAGUNIS: It doesn't really matter if you're into fencing or basketball or art or drama or whatever, just as long as you find something that you're passionate about and are doing something that you love. That's all that matters and dedicating your time to that.

REPORTER: Now a junior at Notre Dame, Zagunis plans to return to Oregon to train for the 2012 summer games in London.
